SOME SPOTLIGHTS IN TAFT'S CINCINNATI SPEECH.

After denouncing the initiative and referendum and predicting that the people of Ohio would "revert to the good old methods of government," former President William H. Taft said that the great bane of the day was too much legislation by legislatures.

Not a law has been passed by the direct action of the people of Ohio, and Prof. Taft went on to say, that the Legislature seemed more interested in the passage of legislation than in its results.

All the complaints that business men are now making about too much legislation has been legislation by the "good old methods of government."

Business men are asking of Legislatures to "give them a rest." No complaint is heard about "Foolish or too much" legislation by the initiative and referendum.

Prof. Taft called the initiative and referendum "a nostrum."

He favored a seven-year term for the President and the right of Cabinet officers to speak before Congress.

Prof. Taft won applause when he said that the ruin of the country would result if the national government tried to regulate the "door-steps" of the people, and he said that it applied to national prohibition.

Prof. Taft said it was a mistaken idea that a President could not during his term of office leave the United States. He said President Roosevelt and himself had both visited Panama.

He told of the apprehension of a Texan in the White House while he was President. The man had a large gun on him and was found to be insane.

THE ONLY REAL "HIGH SHERIFF."

Next to the President of the United States, the sheriff of New York county probably receives more money for his services than any other public officeholder in America, according to figures made public by Leonard M. Wallstein, Commissioner of Accounts, in a report to Mayor Mitchel.

Since 1905, the report asserts, the sheriff of the county has received fees totaling $402,329, in addition to $12,000 a year salary—an average annual income of more than $56,000.

LIQUOR BAN PROPOSED.

Charles H. Randall, Congressman-elect from California and a Prohibitionist, announces that it is to be proposed to the next Congress that the government withdraw from the liquor business all the facilities which are under the government's control or ownership.

IS MRS. CARTER HARRISON A SUFFRAGETTE, NOW?

Women voters who cast their ballots for the first time in a Chicago mayoralty election, polled 77 per cent of their registration, compared with 70 per cent for the men.

HIS TITLE WASN'T CLEAR.

It is said that Mayor Hurison had been so long in office that he considered Chicago to be his private estate and intended passing the office along to his son.

Champ Clark declares that a special session of Congress would wipe the Democratic party off the map. There are other good reasons for not having a special session, but that one is sufficient—State Journal.

MRS. STEWART'S RECOGNITION.

The reception and recognition given Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan is no inconsequential feature of the great work against adult illiteracy which she inaugurated. It was all the more significant as the President had so recently vetoed a bill directed chiefly against foreign adult illiteracy. There is a nice distinction, but no conflict in the positions of the two. The worthiness of Mrs. Stewart and her cause are only the more emphasized. The recognition given to her work here and to the illiteracy commission of which she is the head, with her office in the state capitol, is made supreme. There are, doubtless, those who would try to belittle her accomplishments and divide the forces in Kentucky that are alert to wipe out illiteracy by 1920, but their efforts will be vain. In fact they are of such a distinctly disorganized and self-enclosing type that they are discredited and have been from the start. A united effort was what was wanted and even the Woman's Forward Movement in behalf of the illiteracy commission, was subordinate to the commission of which Mrs. Stewart is the head. No one should give aid to any movement that would tend to disintegrate or weaken the commission.—Owensboro Messenger.

CITY PUPILS HEALTHIER

Of 230,000 New York City school children, 70 per cent were found physically defective.

Of 294,000 country children in Pennsylvania, 75 per cent were found defective.

Dr. Thomas D. Wood of Columbia University, New York, chairman of the Committee on Health Problems in Education, submitted these figures to the superintendents' convention at Cincinnati to indicate that the city child is healthier than his country brother or sister. The city children have more sanitary schools and have the benefit of medical and dental inspection, he said.

AS THE ONE, SO THE OTHER.

Truly, when the smoke does not roll out of the stack at the factory, not only the factory hand is idle but also the coal miner. The solution of the miner's idleness problem then is to get the mills to running.

There have been 19 straight acquittals of women in Chicago who have killed men, perhaps on the presumption that the average Chicago man needs killing.—The Lexingtonian.

STRAIGHTFORWARD TESTIMONY

Many Maysville Citizens Have Profited By It.

If you have backache, urinary troubles, days of dizziness, headaches or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble. These are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments — are endorsed by over 30,000 people. Your neighbors recommend this remedy — have proved its merit in many tests. Maysville readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of a Maysville citizen.

Henry Gallestein, blacksmith, Poplar St., Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best of kidney remedies. I have used different kinds and no other has ever equaled this one. When my kidneys were out of order and I had pain in my back, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They stopped the pains and my kidneys became strong. The cure has been permanent."

Mr. Gallestein is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches — if your kidneys bother you don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Gallestein had — the remedy backed by home testimony. 50¢ aail stores. ### SUNDAY'S WAR SITUATION.

Turkey.

The allies have disembarked detachments of artillery near the reduced Dardanelles forts, and British and French flags are now flying over them. The fleet continues the bombardment of the inner forts. A powder magazine was blown up, killing many. The fleet has reached the lighthouse of Kili-Bahr.

United States.

The United States has not been advised through Ambassador Page or the British Embassy of the reported notification to neutrals of Great Britain's intention to hold up all shipping to and from Germany and Austria, and officials at Washington were unable last night to express any opinion upon this latest development.

Russia.

The Russian offensive operations appear to extend along their whole front and, according to their reports, they have successfully checked the German advance in North Poland. Their reports refer to the capture of large numbers of prisoners as a new phase of the war, and credit it to a lack of officers in the German armies. The Russians have been enabled to bring large numbers of reinforcements to their front. The opening of the Dardanelles, it is claimed, would give Russia a vast amount of war material and release Russian grain.

Belgium.

The Belgian army has been reorganized and reequipped, and has advanced across the Yser.

France.

The capture of the American steamer Dauphin by a French cruiser will take that vessel before a French prize court, while an English prize court will pass upon the cargo of the Wilhelmmina. The French report says 300 yards of trench were captured in the Argonne, and that sharp progress has been made in the Champagne district.

JOSH BILLINGS' PHILOSOPHY.

There seems to be this difference between cheerfulness and mirth: The perky or the cheerful man always stands at about 70 in the shade, while the mirthful man's goes up to 90, and then at times sinks down to zero.

To supply a man's necessities takes little, but to feed his desires takes an empire.

There is nothing which eludes and shuns woman defects so quick as the atmosphere of an impure man.

It requires a good deal more art and skill to conceal what we don't know than it does to impress others with what we do know.

Men's judgments often make a blunder, but their conscience never does.

Contentment has been praised more, and practised less, than any other contentment in life.

Fools soon get tired of their own company.

There is a great deal of wit in the world that is like a broken cambric needle — very sharp at the point, but no eye to it to carry a thread.

It is very hard to define economy; all we seem to know about it is, that one man will make a dollar buy twice as much as another man can.

Keep your own miseries; don't offer to swap rheumatism with any man.

Too much book learning is often an injury; a person may require in this way so much in general that he won't know anything particular.—New York World.

NEED WATCHING.

(Hancock Clarion.)

We suppose the authorities in Washington have taken precaution to prevent the bronze statues of General Lafayette, Count Rochambeau and Baron Steuben in Lafayette Square from violating our neutrality.

THE SPHINX.

The Sphinx was hewn out of the natural rock, with the exception of trifling additions in masonry here and there to complete the shape. The excavations of Marietta in 1852 practically redrew the colossal figure from the sands, so that it stood forth in its full dimensions, 172 feet in length by 50 feet in height.—New York American.

DON'T NAG.

I abomish all those in my family who have authority to be angry, in the first place to manage their anger, and not to lavish it upon every occasion, for that lessens the effect; rash and constant scolding runs into custom, and renders itself despised.—Montaigne.

CHEERFUL PEOPLE REFRESHED.

You will find yourself refreshed by the presence of cheerful people. Why not make earnest efforts to confer that pleasure on others? You will find half the battle gained if you will never allow yourself to say anything gloomy.

INTIMIDATION.

(Richmond Pantagraph.)

Is it impossible for Kentucky to protect the lives of its citizens and make the law supreme? In a country much nearer than Warren people are afraid to talk even in whispers of the bloody deeds that go unpunished.

WOMAN'S BEAUTY NO SECRET.

It all lies in the care she bestows upon herself and in keeping at bay those dread ills peculiar to her sex. The flashing eye, the elastic step and the clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. The distressed expression, lassitude, headache and mental depression are only the tell-tale symptoms. Women so troubled should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that same made from roots and herbs to their health to a normal c.

FAVORS WHIPPING

If It Will Aid In the Reformation of Delinquent Pupils.

Corporal punishment still has its place, and properly so in the schools, according to Prof. George L. Aldrich, superintendent of schools of Brookline, Mass. School authorities should be agents for reformation and not for punishment of delinquent pupils, he said. "Often their lives have been filled," he said, "with hardness, and when they need at school is sympathy—not softness—but sympathy. Such sympathy, sine and solitaria, will manifest itself in many and varied ways. It may even eventuate in a whipping."

Little Rock, Ark., March 2.—A bill proposing a tax of $1 on every mail order catalogue sent into Arkansas is now pending in the state legislature, with good prospects of being enacted into law. The leaders of Congress are preparing for days and nights of strenuous work before adjournment and both House and Senate will be in almost continuous session. ## DON'T TALK WARLIKE.

The Church Peace Union, founded a year ago by Andrew Carnegie, has issued an address to the churches and clergy of America cautioning them against a display of partisanship in discussing the European war and protesting against any agitation for increased armament.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good.

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

NOTED CONGRESSMEN TO SAY FAREWELL.

Washington, March 2.—The Sixty-third Congress today began to say its farewells and to prepare for the termination of its business at noon Thursday. Retiring members, some of whom have been in Congress for a score or more of years, already are cleaning out their desks for the exodus from the capital. During the remainder of the week there will be many little informal dinners at which the veteran lawmakers who are retiring to private life, either permanently or temporarily, will say goodbye to their colleagues.

Veterans of many legislative struggles are now making their farewell appearances on the floor of the House. Chief among those whose absence will be noticed when the Sixty-fourth Congress convenes will be Underwood and Holson of Alabama, Murdock and Need of Kansas, Palmer of Pennsylvania, Goldfogel of New York, Korbly of Indiana, Bartholomew and Bulkeley of Ohio, Stanley of Kentucky, Barthold of Missouri, Laferty of Oregon, McGoire of Oklahoma, and Knowland of California.

Most conspicuous of the members of the Senate who will say farewell this week are Elihu Root of New York and Theodore E. Burton of Ohio. Both declined to stand for re-nomination in the primaries in their respective states last year. A number of other prominent members are about to take leave of the Senate, notably Perkins of California, who is to be succeeded by James D. Phelan; Crawford of South Dakota, who will give way to E. S. Johnson; Bristow of Kansas, whose successor will be former Senator Charles Curtis, and the very recently succeeded by Paul O. Hurlburt.

It remains for the future to tell whether the men that plan it and build it are subjects of the Czar, subjects of Germany, or of Great Britain, or even of the Chinese republic or empire. That task, splendid and fascinating as it is, seems to be set also to those outside the field of individual ambition and endeavor.

CONGRESS WORKING LIKE KILLING SNAKES.

The leaders of Congress are preparing for days and nights of strenuous work before adjournment and both House and Senate will be in almost continuous session. The big supply bills are expected to be out of the way in time to permit some general legislation, and among other things a last desperate effort will be made to put through the Ship Purchase bill.

GREAT DISCOVERIES ANNOUNCED

Secretary Lane of the Interior Department, announced that Dr. Walter F. Rittenhouse, chemical engineer of the Bureau of Mines, had made two discoveries of the utmost importance. The first is a new process for obtaining gasoline from petroleum and will increase the production by 200 per cent. The second makes possible the production of toluol and benzol from petroleum.

DON'T TALK WARLIKE.

The Church Peace Union, founded a year ago by Andrew Carnegie, has issued an address to the churches and clergy of America cautioning them against a display of partisanship in discussing the European war and protesting against any agitation for increased armament.

Premier Asquith Now Is Confident

Allies Will Win.

London, March 1.

The outline of measures which the English government is expected to take to meet the menace of the German submarine blockade has been embodied in a note which has been dispatched to all the neutral governments.

The policy determined upon is sweeping. The allied governments will hold themselves at liberty to stop and seize all exports from Germany and all cargoes destined for Germany, without regard to the nature of their intended and specified use. In the words of Minister H. H. Asquith, "The ever-contracting circle around the German empire, which is narrowed day by day, is in fact which on a very near date will be closed around the enemy altogether, and nothing will go in or come out which will serve the German cause."
